11. CONTRIBUTIONS TO TEACHING PRACTICE

a. Pedagogic innovation and development of technology-enhanced learning

Created and produced Essentials of Linguistics, an Open Educational Resource for teaching Introduction to Linguistics, to be hosted on eCampusOntario's Open Access Learning Resources site beginning in 2018. (2017-18).

Incorporated Team-Based Learning in Ling 2PS3 (beginning 2017), supporting students' metacognitive awareness and development of collaboration skills.

Converted Linguistics 1A03 and 1AA3 to blended learning format (2014-16), increasing student engagement and reducing reliance on graduate TAs.

Initiated podcasting in Ling 1A03 and 1AA3, allowing students to review lectures after class (2012-2014).

Early adopter of iClickers in large classes, supporting colleagues in incorporating clickers into their own classes (2009-present).

b. Leadership in delivery of educational programs

Redesigned all courses to include flexible accessibility practices, to reduce the burden of disclosure & seeking accommodation for students with documented disabilities, and also to create greater accessibility for all students regardless of their circumstances (2017 – present)

Featured in MacPherson Institute FLEX Forward video series (2016)

Conducted research project to investigate outcomes of new Humanities 1 programs. (September 2015 – June 2016)

Mentor to junior colleague, Assistant Professor Dr. Daniel Pape (2016-18)

Mentor to graduate student instructors Cassandra Chapman and Angela Harrison (2015-17)

Mentor to junior colleagues, sessional instructors Dr. Deanna Friesen and Dr. Ivan Chow (2014-15)

FWI grant with Sarah Symons (Integrated Science) to investigate feasibility of peer mentoring and collaborative learning methods in large Humanities classes (2013-15)

c. Course/Curriculum Development

Member of team to develop Humanities 1VV3 (Voice and Vision: Words to Change the World) and Humanities 1QU3 (Questions to Change the World), working with instructors to incorporate Learning Portfolio activities into both courses (2015-16).

Member of team to develop Humanities 2LP3 (Explorations in Learning: Design, Engage, Achieve) (2014-15).

Developed Certificate in Community Leadership, as a member of Humanities Working Group (see item 17) (2014).

Revised Linguistics 3B03 Psycholinguistics to bring it from third-year to second-year level (Linguistics 2PS3). Revisions include an emphasis on scientific thinking and focus on developing students' writing skills (2011).

Created Linguistics 4Y06 Honours Thesis and developed guidelines for all thesis students and supervisors (2009).

Created Linguistics 3C03 Child Language Acquisition, dealing with language development in children from birth to school age (2006).

d. Development/evaluation of educational materials and programs

Collaborated with undergraduate Student Partners (funded by MacPherson Institute) to apply SoTL principles to undergraduate IQAP review (2017-18).

Co-investigator, SSHRC Insight Development Grant, "Developing a Pedagogical Framework to Enhance Undergraduate Education: Evaluating the Impact of an ePortfolio-Based Experience on Reflective Thinking and Goal-Oriented Approaches to Deep Learning", submitted January 2015 (not funded).

Textbook reviewer for Oxford University Press (2014, 2015, 2017).

Textbook reviewer for Sinauer Associates (2012).

External Assessor, SIM University, Singapore (2010).

Textbook reviewer for Blackwell Publishers (2009).
